

Wings Of Eagles

Isaiah 40:31

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings of eagles, they shall run and not be weary. And they shall walk and not faint.

Looking over Utah with a classmate on EXC. Many good memories made here at Moody!

A New Chapter

Graduation class photos from my class of 2018

My time at Moody Aviation as a student has been completed. In late May, I passed my commercial licensing test, and have completed Moody's program!

As mentioned in my last letter, the opportunity for me to flight instruct has arisen, and I have decided to take hold of it! I met with Moody Aviation's program manager and the Director of Flight Operations, and they asked me to stay on to work at Moody for a 2-year commitment. During these 2 years, I will be working on furthering my aviation experience as well as building a financial/prayer support team for when I go overseas (planning for that in 2021).

Beginning July 16th, I will be working full time for Proclaim Aviation Ministries and serving on-loan to Moody Aviation as a maintenance/flight instructor. Proclaim is a non-profit mission agency which prepares missionary pilot/mechanics to serve overseas. I will begin building a financial and prayer partnership team ASAP since though Proclaim, I am required to raise my own support.

A timeline for the next 2 years is shown on the flip side as well for my current financial need for the upcoming years.

Thank you to everyone for praying and supporting me thus far! The Lord has done mighty things through all of you!
