JOSH COWLES | Aviation. How we sustain ministry at the ends of the earth.

Dear friends and family,

I would like to introduce my future wife, Sarah! I wish I had space in this letter to tell you what an incredible blessing, encouragement, and friend she has become over the last two years. God has certainly blessed me beyond measure, and we are so excited to begin our life and ministry together. Also, Sarah is the daughter of a missionary pilot, so she knows what she's getting herself into! If you haven't already had the pleasure of meeting her, I hope that we can make that happen soon.

I AM A MISSIONARY AVIATOR

WITH PROCLAIM AVIATION MINISTRIES. I AM CURRENTLY LIVING IN SPOKANE, WA SERVING AS A FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR AT MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE'S MISSIONARY AVIATION SCHOOL. I AM BLESSED TO BE A PART OF TRAINING FUTURE MISSIONARY PILOTS WHILE WE PREPARE FOR MY OWN EVENTUAL OVERSEAS MINISTRY.

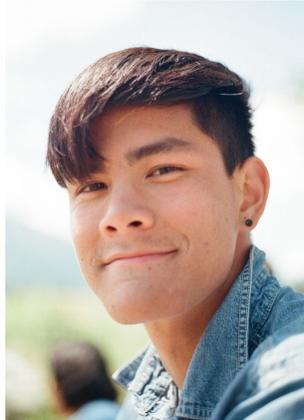

MISSIONARY AVIATORS TRAVERSE SOME OF THE WORLD'S MOST FORBIDDING TERRAIN TO BRING BIBLE TRANSLATORS, PASTORS, MEDICAL AID, SUPPLIES, AND SUSTENANCE —ALL WITH THE LOVE OF CHRIST—BEYOND WHERE THE ROADS END. WE ARE PART OF THIS EFFORT SUSTAINING MINISTRY AT THE ENDS OF THE EARTH.

ministry update

My first student passed his FAA checkride! Over the last couple of months I have been flying with Eric, who was working towards his instrument rating. I have greatly enjoyed getting back in the cockpit and settling into my new role as a teacher. As often happens when teaching, I have already learned so much.

NEW STUDENTS • On August 10, we began flight instruction with a brand new class of 18 flight students! I have the privilege of teaching three of them. I'm so lucky to help equip them with practical skills to advance God's kingdom!

As always, I couldn't do this without you. Thank you for your prayers, gifts, and encouragement. You make this ministry possible.
