MISSIONS ARRIVAL

Moving forward.

We want to thank everyone who has been praying for additional mechanics to join Collin and the Moody Aviation production team.

We praise God for the addition of one full time mechanic and one on-loan Proclaim Aviation mechanic who will be joining shortly. As many of you know, Collin's plan to continue gathering experience is to complete his 2-year commitment to the aviation production team and then move towards getting his Certified Flight Instructor license with the hope of joining Moody Aviation as a flight instructor for another 2 to 3 years. When it seemed that no additional team members would be joining, Collin felt torn between leaving this great team and continuing down his flight training path.

God's plan and timing.

Collin has enjoyed working with this team doing aircraft maintenance; yet, since a young age, he has loved flying, and the thought of giving that up has, at times, been hard to swallow. We desire to live in God's will and to trust His timing. With the arrival of new team members, we feel that God is allowing us to continue down the CFI and flight training path. As you think of us, please pray that God will continue to reveal His will and His path to us. Collin has 8 more months before his contract in the Production Shop ends, but we need to decide on our next step by this winter to start preparations and communicate with those who need to be informed of our plans. We appreciate and covet your prayers during this time.

I've been learning what daycare is like while Mom works, but it's not a regular daycare. It's at Mom's job too! It's for all the staff kids up to 4 years old. She can walk over and see me at lunchtime or any other time. I have so much fun with the kids and childcare workers.

Elena is working again.

While researching volunteer nursing opportunities to maintain her nursing license, we remembered one of our long-time church partners, Life Services Clinic, here in Spokane. Not only did they have volunteer opportunities available, but they asked if Elena would be interested in applying for a staff position in their clinic. Since August, Elena has been working 2 days a week at this pregnancy resource center, learning how the nurses care for and counsel the clients. It has been a very encouraging and life-giving work environment, and Elena is so grateful to be working in a ministry with like-minded believers.

Thank you for your partnership as we continue our work and trust in His provision and wisdom.

PRAYING

Pray that Elena will prepare well and be bold for life in her conversations with clients • Protection from sickness for Elijah in the childcare setting • That God will give us peace in upcoming decisions for our missionary journey • Praise that additional staff are joining the Moody Production team • As we were asking for God to reveal His will for us and we were unsure of this door to work in fulltime maintenance, God met us there and began to show us His path.
